

This tongue twisting tale follows young Alice on an adventure across Africa during which she encounters many different kinds of animals. Each letter of the alphabet is visited as the readers are introduced to the animals and their antics through whimsical verse. Children will enjoy having this fun, rhythmic story read aloud to them while they identify the animals in the photos. Bright colors, realistic illustrations, and fun text make this an enjoyable way to explore exotic animals while focusing on letter recognition. Visit the my books section of my blog RoamingRosie.com to see sample pages, or start reading now: Little Alice so loves an adventure, But she loves meeting animals more! She's excited at all she'll discover On her African animal tour. For adventures of animal sightings She knew this was the right place to be. Setting off with her guide she was ready To find all of them, from A to Z! An Anonymous Ant was Attracting An Active Aardvark's Attention and Awe, As the Aardvark was reaching towards him, Attempting an Arc with his paw. Then Beyond them were two Baboon Buddies Beholding Both fingers and toes, While a Brave Bat was Beckoning Boldly To a Buffalo Bathing Below.
