In fact, what makes this book so special is it is not a self help book or a quick fix. It is a book that makes you feel that you are with Matt talking through how to make permanent changes in your life that will bring you genuine happiness and positive energy into your everyday life. Matt show us that the challenges we all face are the important part of life and it is these struggles which gives us the opportunity to transform for the better and make those changes we all are capable of.
