

A 2.5 million dollar Harlequin Mask has been stolen right under everyone's noses! It was never out of sight—how could this have happened? The auction was invitation-only, which means only one thing: the thief is among them. The New Orleans police are on the case, the room where the auction was being held is in lockdown, and no one can leave—not even the Mayor and his wife. Everyone there is a high roller and everyone there is a suspect. Yet before the police can even begin their investigation, they already have their sights set on a prime suspect—the insider responsible for the distraction that allowed the thief to steal the mask without anyone even noticing. One Jane Dough, of Little Rock... How in the world did JD get herself into this mess? Follow along as JD struggles to prove her innocence and uncover the real thief!
