

“Every night the monster changes its hiding place. Where is it tonight? Perhaps sat in the corner, or crouching beside the coat rack. Sometimes I can almost hear its breathing, wherever it is. Or I imagine the drool running down its lips. Its eyes following me as it waits for the right moment to attack. I’ve been very lucky so far. I’ve kept one step ahead!” - THE WOODEN HILLS Open this volume, dear reader; but know that the stories it contains are not for the faint-hearted. This is an eclectic collection from the imagination of debutant author, Andy Evans. Dark tales all: stories of magic, an online serial killer, werewolves, a homicidal snowman, doppelgangers, a dentist with an unusual patient, ghosts on the open road, angels on a public bus, the End of the World, and more. Here, the world is not what it seems. Don’t say you weren’t warned.
